

AFIMSC Capability Chaplain Corps

The U.S. Air Force Chaplain Corps provides pastoral care ministry and counseling to Airmen, Guardians and families at active, reserve and guard bases across the Department of the Air Force. The Chaplain Corps provides a variety of programs and services that establish trusted connections and feed the spiritual, ethical, moral and religious needs of the force.

AFIMSC provides an enterprise view of Chaplain Corps programs and services, enabling the Air and Space Force to prioritize greatest needs and standardize support offerings.

FAQs

What is the importance of the Chaplains Corps?

Chaplains strengthen the spiritual resilience and overall wellness of Airmen and help them remain effective in their daily missions.

How does AFIMSC support the Chaplain Corps?

AFIMSC provides wings with the resources, training, advocacy, tools and guidance to meet the religious support and spiritual care needs of their Airmen, Guardians and families.

How does AFIMSC strengthen mission support?

AFIMSC tracks and consolidates vital program and services data to identify the most common or pressing issues among Airmen and equips wing leaders and chaplains with the guidance and training to effectively boost morale and combat obstacles that could impact the mission.

Spiritual Events

AFIMSC supports training programs and manages appropriated funds, chapel tithes and offering funds for the overall Chaplain Corps budget. The funds are used for spiritual and resiliency programs and events to bolster the wellness of Airmen, Guardians and their families.

Contingency Operations

AFIMSC supports Air Force Chaplain contingency operations by planning, posturing and sequencing for more than 1,000 Active Duty military members.

Management Internal Control Toolkit

The management internal control toolkit ensures chapels are executing the most important aspects of their missions. AFIMSC uses MICT to review programs and identify areas that may be out of compliance with Air Force Instructions. The chaplain program provides guidance, advice and trend analysis that improves MICT evaluation outcomes and customer understanding of the evaluation process.

Chaplain Corps Activity Reporting System

AFIMSC oversees the AFCCARS, which includes counseling services, worship service data, unit engagement and leadership advisement submitted by every base. AFIMSC consolidates and distributes the data to Headquarters Air Force. Major command leaders then receive significant counseling trends so they can improve their support for Airmen, Guardians and their families.
