

AFSVC Input - IMSC Connections eNewsletter Nov 22

National Restaurant Association Educational Foundation (NRAEF) Culinary Institute of America Advanced Culinary Training Program Graduation

The NRAEF hosted an Advanced Culinary Training Program (ACTP) at the Culinary Institute of America, Hyde Park New York, 7-11 Nov 22. The class consisted of 18 food service professionals from the Army, Marines, Navy, Coast Guard, Air Force and Military Sealift Command. Air Force representatives were TSgt. Joshua Solomon, Air Force Services Center, Joint Base San Antonio-Lackland, Texas; A1C Christen Magtato, Joint Base Marianas, Guam; A1C Tori Wardlaw, Cannon AFB, N.M.; and A1C Carlos Zavala, Beale AFB, Calif. These members attended based on recommendation from the NRAEF industry travelers and their unit commanders for outstanding support to Air Force food and beverage operations.

The NRAEF hosts four ACTP courses per year allowing 16 USAF/USSF food service professionals a chance to attend and improve their culinary skills. The next course is tentatively scheduled in February 2023 at the Culinary Institute of America campus in San Antonio, TX.

Marketing Directors Earn Air Force and Industry Recognized Certifications

Congratulations to the Military Marketers who successfully completed the Marketing Professional Certification Course, 22-02 and earned the designation of Certified Association of National Advertisers Marketing Professionals. They completed the rigorous 35+ hour course work, elevating their marketing campaigns to a new level.

- Alexandra Crozier, Services Director, Duke ARB, FL
- Jodie Galloway, Marketing Director, Goodfellow AFB, TX
- Saul Guevara, Marketing Director, Nellis AFB, NV (Distinguished Graduate)
- John Wesley Harmon, Marketing Director, Columbus AFB, MS
- Marissa Kaufmann, Social Media Specialist, Eielson AFB, AK