Hurlburt Field Campus Dining System Update

Hurlburt Field, FL will become the second non-Food 2.0 pilot base to initiate the new Campus Dining System (CDS) on June 1. AFSOC is the first MAJCOM to have all bases fully implemented under the AF CDS program. Under the CDS test, active duty Air Force ESM members will have expanded benefits using a portion of their daily ESM entitlement in participating NAF activities

Hurlburt Field is the second of six installations scheduled to test CDS at non-Food 2.0 bases in FY21; Mountain Home AFB, ID, Peterson AFB, CO, Maxwell AFB, AL, Misawa AB, Japan, and Incirlik AB, Turkey are all scheduled to implement and test CDS in the next eight months. If successful, Air Force is seeking the funding to deliver CDS to the rest of the Air Force starting in FY22.

Airmen Qualify for U.S. Olympic Track and Field Trials

World Class Athlete Program (WCAP) member Capt Hannah Everson (left below), 10,000M, placed 17/32 with a time of 32:17.60 at the 2021 Track Meet in Los Angeles. WCAP member 2nd Lt. Both Capt Everson and 2d Lt Rhoads earned automatic bids to the US Olympic Track and Field Trials in Eugene, Oregon, on June 18-27.

Summer Reading Program (SRP)

The FY21 Summer Reading Program officially launched on May 16. This year's theme is "Reading Colors Your World!" Installation libraries and Geographically Separated Units will continue to follow the Center for Disease Control COVID-19 public health measures adopted in FY20. Installation libraries are likely to host more in-person SRP events for this year's program. A number of libraries will continue to offer hybrid programs, that is, in-person and virtual to ensure widest program participation. The SRP is open to readers of all ages.

Boys & Girls Clubs of America Military Youth of the Year

In partnership with Boys & Girls Clubs of America (BGCA), Air Force Youth Programs recognize outstanding teens who excel as leaders, are committed to service, achieve academic excellence, and demonstrate a dedication to healthy lifestyles through the Military Youth of the Year (MYoY) program. Air Force teens from around the world are joining their peers from all branches of the service to compete in state-level MYoY competitions, vying for scholarships and the opportunity to represent their installation at the regional level of competition. Each state winner receives a scholarship of $2,500 and the opportunity to compete for $20,000 at the regional level, $20,000 at the national MYoY competition and $50,000 for the overall National YoY title. Regional events take place in May and June and the National Military Youth of the Year event is scheduled for August 4. We congratulate the Air Force State Military Youths of the Year so far:
